About Edmonton's Food Bank

The Edmonton Gleaners Association, more commonly known as Edmonton's Food Bank, was incorporated in 1981 and was the first food bank in Canada. Edmonton's Food Bank primarily operates as a central warehouse redistributing food to over 300 agencies, shelters, churches, schools, and food depots throughout the city to support their programs. Thanks to this consolidated effort, we ensure that food donations go directly to those who need it the most while reducing duplication of community efforts. In conjunction with our partner program support, we directly provide food hampers to tens of thousands of individuals and families monthly.

MISSION

To be stewards in the collection of surplus and donated food for the effective distribution, free of charge, to people in need in our community, while seeking solutions to the causes of hunger.

VISION

We envision a community where all citizens have access to an adequate and nutritious supply of food.

As an affiliated member of Food Banks Canada, we are committed to the mantra:
Relieving hunger today. Preventing hunger tomorrow.

VALUES

COMMITMENT

Living the mission.

INTEGRITY

Modeling integrity and accountability.

SERVICE

Serving the community.

INNOVATION

Seeking change through innovation and creativity.

RESPONSIVENESS

Listening and building relationships.

FAIRNESS

Embracing equality.

Message from Michael Capus

If 2021 was about learning how to adapt to the rapidly changing economic and affordability challenges in our community, then 2022 has certainly challenged what we thought we knew.

This past year has been tough on Edmonton's Food Bank and the people we serve. We hit a milestone, with 35,000+ community members requiring hampers in a single month. It was almost double what we were serving only three years ago. The demand was so high that we had difficulty keeping our shelves stocked and had to make some difficult operational choices to stretch our supplies to meet this growing demand.

Thankfully, we were once again able to rely on the generous support of our donors, volunteers, and partners who helped us raise more than 6 million kilograms of food and 10 million dollars. Without this support we would not have been able to afford the roughly $280,000 a month that we are spending just on food, in addition to relying on our gleaning efforts for our hampers and other food programs.

I'm appreciative of the pride and commitment this organization and its people have for their work. Everyone I interact with through Edmonton's Food Bank is drawn to our mission: finding solutions to end hunger. It's our common thread and we continue to make strides aligned with this.

We recognize that food hampers are not a long term response and there are more ways we can help address those most in need. This past year, we expanded our Beyond Food program to help our clients and others have easier and non-stigmatizing access to employment supports.

We recognize and understand that Edmonton's Food Bank has a role to play in championing diversity. We're committed to leading with equity, inclusion, and diversity in all that we do. This past year we invested in equity, inclusion, and diversity training for our staff to support our clients and volunteers and we're continuing to build on strong partnerships with various community groups.

Finally, this past year, we purchased a new warehouse. Championed by the generosity of our donor community, this helps us further expand our services to meet the ever-growing demand. As an organization that requires physical space, this further reinforces our investment to support people in our community. This investment is part of our long-term strategy as the facility's mortgage is less than the cost of our rental warehouse. To learn more, feel free to reach out to the management team.

We're grateful to be stewards of such an impactful organization and look forward to continuing our work in the future because of your support. On behalf of the Board of Directors, thank you.

Sincerely,

Michael Capus, Chairperson

Deep Appreciation from our Executive Director,

Edmonton's Food Bank continues to see record numbers of people and partner organizations requesting help from our organization. The last couple of years have taken their toll on our clients, volunteers, and staff. Despite this heaviness, we continue to be inspired by the kindness and generosity that surrounds us. Public food donations remain consistent and our community remains loyal and supportive of our mission. Our dedicated response to the needs of Edmontonians is thanks to our donors, staff, volunteers, and partner organizations.

Thank you for giving your gifts of food, time, and money. You are appreciated for all you do.

Where We Serve

OUR NEWEST ADDITION

Edmonton's Food Bank has grown considerably since its inception in 1981 and is still growing today.

In fall of 2022, we acquired the building between our main warehouse and The Annex to help us better accommodate our clients and ever-growing services. This building will primarily be used to store more non-perishable food and as a depot location, along with a pantry for clients.

Prior to acquiring the building we were renting storage space down the street to be able to store food, and now will have easier access with the addition of our third building.

Special thanks to the Muttart Foundation for providing us a mortgage.

THE ANNEX

Our second warehouse, called The Annex, houses three departments:

- Client Services (Call Centre)
- Resource Development
- Beyond Food Program

MAIN WAREHOUSE

Our main warehouse is the heart of food distribution and includes sorting, repackaging, hamper-making, and our agency sharing system. This warehouse also has walk-in coolers and freezers.

"Our newest warehouse is in need of upgrades including new H.V.A.C. system, electrical, and accessibility upgrades. Thanks to the (CFEP) Community Facility Enhancement Program grant of $737,000 these renovations and more will be completed."

-Mark Doram, Director of Operations
Edmonton's Food Bank

Our Programs & Services

HAMPERS

A food hamper is a box of food, consisting of fresh and non-perishable food items. Hampers are assembled based on the size of the household and any dietary requirements. Upon request, additional items may be added such as pet food, school snack items, and toiletries. We rely on donated food.

As a charity, Edmonton's Food Bank cannot provide all the nutritional and food needs for all people at all times. We encourage people to make purchasing food a priority when they receive their paycheques, salary, or government financial support. Beyond hampers, we refer people to other helping organizations to help with food planning or budgeting.

FOOD DEPOTS

We want people to get their food in their neighbourhood close to home. To do this, we collaborate with 66 community food depots. Volunteers at these sites are instrumental for food access around Edmonton.

MOBILE FOOD DEPOTS

Where there are limited physical hamper distribution opportunities (i.e. no physical building to work from), hampers are delivered to specific communities using our Mobile Hamper Program.

EMERGENCY BAGS

These bags of food are for specific service providers for distribution to individuals in crisis. The bags are prepared with non-perishable items, some key staples, along with information to access other food. We work with the Edmonton Police Service to give to high-risk individuals and families, as well as groups like Scona Seniors for isolated and vulnerable seniors.

"Never in a million years did I ever think that we would be in this situation. Life turns on a dime. We are so thankful to the food bank for the wonderful food hamper for me and my family. Thank you."

~ Annette, single mother of three

Our Programs & Services

AGENCY MEAL & SNACK PROGRAMS

Our work cannot be done in isolation. We work collaboratively with 320 community partners and agencies to distribute about 450,000 meals and snacks per month. Food access for our partner agencies depends on the program requirements and the focus of their mission, and is provided free of charge.

A complete list of our partners is available on pages 26 to 32 of the report.

S.N.A.C.K. PROGRAM

(SUPPORTING NUTRITION FOR ALL CLASSES AND KIDS)

We provide healthy snacks to children and we are currently working with 88 schools plus numerous child focused programs throughout Edmonton. In addition to donated snacks from the public, the Food Bank purchases key items to ensure availability and nutrition. These purchased snacks have no added sugar, low sodium, and include items like granola bars, unsweetened apple sauce, and more.

Thanks to the ATCO EPIC campaign, our S.N.A.C.K. Program got a financial boost of $46,726! Funds were raised through employee giving and initiatives planned like volunteering Days of Caring, 50/50, and even a WestJet raffle. We are grateful for the combined efforts of ATCO and their staff.

AFTER THE BELL

Thanks to Food Banks Canada and amazing donors, we shared 7,280 healthy food packs through various agencies directly to children. After the Bell reduces child hunger by providing a lifeline over the summer for many low-income families with children. These child friendly, nutritious packs contain non-perishable food along with a variety of fresh fruit and vegetables like carrots, apples, oranges, and snap peas depending on the weeks' fresh purchases.

After the Bell is possible thanks to dedicated donors who support the program across the country. Thank you.

BEYOND FOOD

In a collaborative effort between community agencies, the Beyond Food Program provides wrap around support and services to those experiencing poverty and food insecurity. We help clients become more self-sufficient and improve their employability. These services include academic upgrading, computer literacy skills, first aid training, safety tickets, interview and resume preparation, and more.

Thanks go out to Edmonton Community Foundation, Accenture, and TD Canada Trust for their financial support of this program.

Ukrainian Support

"The Food Bank has helped me and my family in this country.
I am thankful for the help for the Ukrainian people."

When the war began in February, Ukrainians were immediately welcomed with open arms in Canada.

Edmonton's Food Bank instantly supported these individuals and families through our hamper programs. Thanks to key staff who speak Russian and Ukrainian, we were able to help them understand our services. We continue to help new Ukrainians as they make Edmonton their temporary home during this conflict.

In addition to the food support, we have been helping many Ukrainians in securing employment through our Beyond Food program. We have been working with The Learning Centre to assess individual Ukrainians on their English and to connect them to the right supports for them to succeed. Thanks to a couple of key volunteers, we were able to support people to get strong enough with the English language to participate in more structured classes. We also added volunteer connections in our warehouse to provide conversational language opportunities.

We are pleased to say that Edmonton's Food Bank has also hired a few Ukrainians ourselves in our warehouse and our call centre (client services). Working side-by-side, we are all serving our community, while also providing added help in translating for other new arrivals.

SECOND HELPING

In cooperation with conference centres and large banquet facilities, Second Helping gleans prepared yet not plated food from major kitchens. Donations are frozen, picked up, and made available to agency partners for use in their meal and snack programs. Donors adhere to Alberta Health Services protocols for food safety and packaging needs. Large donors to the program include the Edmonton Convention Centre and Rogers Place.

PLANT A ROW, GROW A ROW, SHARE A ROW

This program encourages people to earmark and donate their homegrown fruit and vegetables to Edmonton's Food Bank. Some businesses such as Greenland Garden Centre and the Royal Mayfair Golf Club took this philosophy a step further by donating free seedlings to be grown and donated to Edmonton's Food Bank. Other amazing donors like the Little Potato Company provided seed potatoes to many gardens.

Unfortunately, we are unable to list all our "green-thumb" donors who collectively raised more than 40,000 kilograms of fresh produce for our hamper programs and our agency partners. Some honourable mentions go out to David's Pandemic Farm 11,625 kilograms, the City of Edmonton Farm 10,850 kilograms, and for the first time, the Ukrainian Village planted their first garden for us and raised 252 kilograms of potatoes.

THE RETAIL FOOD PROGRAM

Edmonton's Food Bank started as a food gleaning organization in 1981. This salvaged food is the basis of our food sources and makes up two-thirds of the food we give out to people. We collect surplus food from retailers, distributors, and food industry partners across the city. This salvaged food may be considered surplus based on a number of factors including seasonal changes, overstock, or damaged exterior packaging.

All major food retailers are looking at ways to divert edible food from being wasted. We are proud to partner with our local grocery stores such as TGP, Overwaitea Foods, Sobeys, Loblaws, and Walmart to name a few. Additionally, our local producers and distributors like Canada Bread, Red Hat, Hello Fresh, Little Potato Company, and many, many more contribute surplus food to help our work.

Food Safety is one of our priorities. In response, our trucks are equipped with refrigerated units to ensure the cold chain remains intact. Our volunteers and staff take Safe Food Handling training and we track Food Recalls.

"Many of our retail food donors take their giving to the next level by engaging their customers. These food and fundraisers bring in copious amounts of resources to help us do our work. We applaud and appreciate these gifts."

-Sieg Bressmer, Retail Food Specialist
Edmonton's Food Bank

WALMART FIGHT HUNGER SPARK CHANGE

The fifth annual 'Fight Hunger. Spark Change' campaign raised $173,240! These funds help purchase eggs, shelf-stable milk, fuel for our trucks and equipment to move food in our warehouse.

NORTH CENTRAL CO-OP

Support we receive from our friends at North Central Co-op include initiatives like "Good Buy to Hunger" that raised $25,302 for a feminine hygiene product drive! This unique and needed focus area did not go unnoticed.

For additional retail food and fundraisers, please review our Community sections of the report.

Community

We are proud to share just a few of the groups, businesses, foundations, and individuals that have made our work possible. Our deepest gratitude and appreciation for all our communities' Hunger Heroes. Thank you.

EDMONTON SIKH COMMUNITY

In recognition of the 553rd birthday of the founder of the Sikh religion, Guru Nanak Dev Ji, a donation of $13,013 from our Edmonton Gurdwaras was made.

MAYFIELD DINNER THEATRE

The 22nd annual fundraiser, Toonies for Turkeys, collected donations from patrons to help us going into the new year. This year $19,128 was raised.

FRASERWAY RV

We recieved a $25,500 donation from long time supporters Fraserway RV. On top of this, they also collected non-perishable food donations at their RV Shows to feed those in need.

SNOW VALLEY SKI CLUB

We are lucky to have so many wonderful community partners, especially ones like the Snow Valley Ski Club. During the winter, they support us with their Food Bank Fridays (presented by Servus Credit Union) by donating $2 from each lift ticket sold. In the summer, they collect non-perishable food items for their target golf in the summer. Snow Valley Ski Club and their dedicated patrons raised food and over $18,434 – all the while providing fun for everyone.

CBC'S MAKE THE SEASON KIND

With the combined efforts of thousands of donors including private citizens and corporate giving, we raised a whopping $1,096,015, surpassing their goal of a million dollars.

We were treated to stories of acts of kindness from across the city. Donors who had once needed support from the Food Bank shared the impact of receiving this help. The popular Grinch Walk also made a triumphant return.

We are unable to thank everyone who participated; however, a few awesome highlights include:

ENBRIDGE and their $25,000 matching donations kicked off the 2022 campaign.

HOLYROOD SCHOOL'S 16th year raised $10,822! This amazing tradition led by students and staff has surpassed $350,000 of giving over the years.

EPCOR $20,000 matching funds also triggered other gifts from donors.

PARK PAVING continued to find fun and unique ways year-round to raise funds to support this campaign. Because of this commitment, staff and management raised ~$55,000!

SHERWOOD PARK TOYOTA & TOYOTA NORTHWEST EDMONTON gave a combined donation of $250,000 which created an energetic on-air buzz for Blitz-Day. This was definitely a “mic drop” moment for everyone and pushed the overall initiative past its goal!

GOVERNMENT OF ALBERTA

With the exception of grants, federal funds in 2020, and the recent announcement in Alberta, Edmonton's Food Bank does not receive government funding for food and operations on an ongoing basis. We were pleased to hear of the announcement on November 23 of the $20M to food banks and civil society. Because of this, we received $280,000 that paid for a month of food purchases and have also been able to trigger the added $50,000 matching commitment.

"Thanks for everything you do! My family benefitted from a food donation at one point, and it meant the world to us. Glad you're there to continue to give back!"

-CBC Make the Season Kind Donor Quote

Community

Ramadan is a time for unity and spiritual reflection for members of the community. It is also a time of empathy and giving. The Edmonton Council of Muslim Communities helped collect and donated a generous $42,000 in support of our work.

GIVE 30

Edmonton's Food Bank also participates in GIVE 30 where everyone, regardless of faith, is encouraged to give. Those fasting often tally up lunch or coffee money saved during the month to donate. It also inspires the broader community to give. Overall, the campaign collectively raised $91,236 (including Dawn to Dusk donation).

FURNACE FAMILY

As part of our extended family, the Furnace Family raised 816 kilograms of food and $2,200 - this ongoing support by their business and customers is greatly appreciated.

EDMONTON COMMUNITY FOUNDATION

Thanks to a BIPOC Grant of $75,000, we were able to purchase more culturally appropriate foods for our wide range of clients including items like cooking oil, flour, and halal chicken.

PAYPAL GIVING FUND

For the first time through their charity, PayPal raised funds by providing the opportunity for users to donate when using their PayPal account. PayPal, their customers, including an Edmonton Elks donation of $5,000, raised an impressive $39,388!

THE SHAW FAMILY

The HOP Foundation, through a personal gift by the Shaw Family, has committed $300,000 annually to Edmonton's Food Bank. A combined $2.1M has helped pay for child-focused food to ensure continued positive impact for youth. Everything from shelf stable milk to peanut butter and eggs are purchased with this gift.

Community

EDMONTON FOOD DRIVE

Thousands of volunteers from The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints once again organized a city-wide food drive in September. An astonishing 107,378 kilograms of food was donated!

This is the single largest campaign donation in our history and re-stocked our bare shelves. This event could not happen without the support from trucking companies including Matco, Action, Grimshaw, Purolator, and Bison.

PUROLATOR TACKLE HUNGER

This long-standing charitable event saw the Edmonton Elks take on the Montreal Alouettes. Though the Elks did not win, eager football fans donated 2,123 kilograms of food and $27,780! The Food Bank was definitely the winner at this game.

HARVEST LUNCHEON

We welcomed the return the annual luncheon at our Annex in October to celebrate the harvest! With guests from across the city, we shared an intimate meal filled with laughter. Our guest speaker, Edmonton Elks President and CEO, Victor Cui, provided an intimate experience by sharing his story. With ticket sales, silent auction items, and in-person donations we raised $43,220!

"Community means everything to us. Without community, there would be no Food Bank. It is the commitment of our donors and volunteers that help us keep our doors open and continue to serve our community. A win-win all around. Thank you Edmonton!"

A Story of Giving

Dear Edmonton's Food Bank,

I am contacting you in regards to a donation from my 7 year old son. I have a little story with it, so bear with me.

Back in December I came across a busted up, empty kleenex box on my kitchen table. When I went to throw it in the recycle I saw there was $7.00 inside the box. I asked my kids, "why is there a broken kleenex box on the table with money in it?" My 7 year old son came into the kitchen and said "because I am collecting money for the food bank."

"Why is there a broken kleenex box on the table with money in it?"

He only had $7.00 of his own money, and he put all of it in the box for donation. I was very touched that my little guy came up with this idea on his own, and gave all the money he had because he felt other people needed help. He made a goal to raise $100.00.

The next day at work I was talking to a customer and told her how proud I was of my son for what he wanted to do. I had never met this lady before in my life. Next thing I know she handed me a $5.00 bill for his donation box. When I got home and gave it to my son, he started to cry. He was so touched that someone he did not know was willing to help him reach his goal. I posted a little blurb on my social media about his kleenex box, because how could I not? So proud of his big heart. Next thing I know I was getting emails, phone calls and messages from people wanting to help him reach his goal. Within a week he had raised $287.00!

So now is the big question.... how can I arrange for him to personally bring you the money? If at all possible I would love to have him come to a location to drop it off in person and also see part of the facility so he can see what his donations will do for people in need.

Sincerely,

Chelcey & Boadie Buck

Volunteers

People make it possible for us to fulfill our mission. Volunteers collect food and monetary donations at community events, build food hampers, sort and repack food, drive and swamp on our truck, and take calls from people needing food. Beyond all of this, our volunteers are our ambassadors, helping to engage the community in the work of Edmonton's Food Bank. Volunteers are the heart and soul of our work.

Thank you to our amazing team of volunteers. Your work makes Edmonton a better community for all. We are truly grateful for all you do!

MUD, SWEAT, & GEARS

Our wonderful volunteer Tom had his bike stolen from outside our warehouse and Paul from Mud, Sweat, and Gears was gracious enough to donate a brand new bike so Tom is able to continue to commute around the city! This act of kindness warms our hearts and we applaud Paul for his thoughtfulness.
